PROFESSIONAL RESOURCES FOR STUDENT SUPPORT 2024-25

ACCOUNTING — SEAN SYMONS

A Bermudian chartered professional accountant with over 27 years post qualifying experience principally in the insurance and reinsurance industry. His professional training was completed with PricewaterhouseCoopers in Bermuda and London. Sean has proven experience in financial accounting and reporting, including experience with SEC and BSX filings and dealing directly with boards of directors and audit committees. Career highlights include specific work around the amalgamation of two large Bermuda reinsurers and involved the integration of their financial operations. In addition, he has assisted in taking a company through its initial public offering. Sean currently serves as the Assistant Accounting Manager at American International Company Limited. He has previously served as treasurer for an Anglican church and enjoys reading, cycling and is an avid sports fisherman with interest in light tackle fishing.

ACCOUNTING — ANIL CHATERGOON

Anil is a Ministry Comptroller within the Government of Bermuda and has over 20 years accounting experience in various sectors including utility regulation, tourism, oil and gas, education and economic development. Anil is a member of Council of CPA Bermuda, the Finance Committee of the BPSU, the Legal Aid Committee and the Bermuda Society of Arts. His qualifications include an MBA in Leadership and Sustainability from University of Cumbria and a MSc in Professional Accountancy from University of London. Professionally, he is qualified with the ACCA, CIMA and CAMS. He was quoted on financial resilience in the April 2021 issue of ACCA's Accountancy and Business. In addition, he is the President of the West Indian Association.

ARCHITECTURE IAN GORDON

Ian Gordon has over 25 years experience as an Architect and Master Planner. During this time he has led teams on waterfront redevelopment, urban renewal, golf resort development, brownfield site land transformation, a variety of commercial projects, historic building refurbishment and numerous luxury residential projects in UK, Bermuda, Barbados, Costa Rica, Cuba, Gabon, ,Mexico, USA, Panama, and Portugal. His work in Edinburgh was the subject of a television programme in the UK. Ian holds a Bachelor in Science (Honors) in Architecture from the Scott Sutherland School of Architecture. He also holds a Diploma in Advanced Architectural Studies and is both a Corporate Member of Royal Institute of British Architects and a Corporate Member of Institute of Bermuda Architects.

ENGINEERING PATRICK CATON

Patrick Caton is the president of Caliper Engineering Services Ltd, Professionals Ltd, and IMG Bermuda Ltd. He is a NCCER master trainer and craft professional instructor and the sponsor representative for the NCCER education and certification programmes. Patrick is currently the Power Engineering examiner for the island and holds a 1st Class unlimited license from TSSA in Canada. He is a graduate of Bermuda College and Acadia University, and also a member of the IET, IEEE, ASME, and IFMA. In addition to this he has multiple computer and telecommunications professional designations.

INFRASTRUCTURE ENGINEER ADINOYI JATTO

Adinoyi has over 15 years of experience in Information Technology that has spanned across both private and public industries in Bermuda. His current role is a network infrastructure engineer at Orbis Investment Management Limited with the responsibility of planning, implementing and supporting solutions to ensure a resilient and scalable infrastructure that supports the business needs as it relates to system and service connectivity. Adinoyi holds a Cisco Certified Network Professional (CCNP) Enterprise certification that accredits his understanding and knowledge of core concepts for provisioning enterprise grade networks. He has a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science from Hampton University.

INSURANCE - UNDERWRITING NOEL PEARMAN

Noel is a Senior Vice President and Cyber Product Line Leader at AXA XL in Bermuda, leading the cyber liability initiative in the Bermuda Insurance operations of the company. He has responsibility for building the direct cyber liability book and overseeing cyber exposure across all product lines. He also manages a book of Fortune 500 clients focusing on directors & officers, errors & omissions, employment practices and wage & hour liability. In both Bermuda and the US, Noel is a frequent speaker and contributor on cyber and technology-related topics Noel is a graduate of the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst in the United Kingdom (Territorial Army Commissioning Course) and obtained a B.A. (Hons.) Economics Degree from Western University in Ontario, Canada. He also holds a Registered Professional Liability Underwriter designation.

PORTFOLIO MANAGER AND EQUITY ANALYST GRAEME FORSTER

Graeme joined Orbis as a quantitative analyst in 2007 and is currently a member of the investment team with primary responsibility for the Orbis International Equity and Optimal Strategies. He is also a director of Orbis Holdings Limited. Graeme holds a Master of Arts (Honours) in Mathematics from the University of Oxford, a Master of Research in Applied Mathematics from the University of York, a Doctor of Philosophy in Mathematical Epidemiology and Economics from the University of Cambridge and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.

GLOBAL RISK MANAGER MATTHEW FURR

Matthew currently serves as the Global Risk Manager and a director of Orbis Investment Management Limited. He is responsible for designing, embedding and maintaining an effective Enterprise-wide Risk Management Framework, including robust risk governance, across the Orbis Group. Prior to joining Orbis, his responsibilities included managing a range of operational and investment activities for asset management and capital markets businesses. He has worked for Butterfield Asset Management, Nomura Securities, Tewksbury Capital Management and the Meditor Group. Matthew holds a Bachelor of Science (Honours) and a Master of Arts in Economics from Dalhousie University, is Chartered Financial Analyst, and holds a Graduate Certificate in Enterprise Risk Management from New York University.

LEGAL (CORPORATE) KIRSTIN GOULD

Kirstin Gould is an accomplished board director, global General Counsel and business executive with broad international expertise in M&A, corporate governance, U.S. securities law and compliance. Kirstin served as General Counsel of XL Group from 2007 to 2018. In this role, she navigated the company through several tumultuous legal transitions, including the 2008/09 financial crisis, the 2015 acquisition of Catlin and XL Catlin's 2018 sale to AXA, S.A. Kirstin held the role Policy Committee Chair of the Association of Bermuda Insurers and Reinsurers from 2005 to 2012, where she worked with the Bermuda Monetary Authority to help position Bermuda to become one of the first countries outside the E.U. to achieve Solvency II equivalence. Kirstin founded Harrington Advisors, LLC in June 2020 and joined the Board of Directors of Pacific Life Re in September 2020. A tenacious and perseverant leader, she is a trusted advisor and colleague to senior executives and board members, providing steadfast guidance through highly complex transactions and times of crisis.

MEDICINE DR. CHRIS FOSKER

Dr. Fosker is a clinical oncologist. He is the Chief Executive Officer and Medical Director at Bermuda Cancer and Health Centre and a consultant at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston.

As a Clinical Oncologist Dr Fosker is qualified to treat cancer patients with radiation therapy, chemotherapy, molecular therapy and immunotherapy. Dr. Fosker was the pioneer in the project that brought radiation therapy to the country of Bermuda for the first time.

Dr. Fosker received a Bachelor of Science in Genetics from the University of Leeds. He graduated from Leeds Medical School in 2003. He became a Member of the Royal College of Physicians in 2006 He became a Fellow of the Royal College of Radiologists in 2011. In January 2020 he was awarded a Fellowship at the Royal College of Physicians in recognition of his overseas work and in 2022 he was awarded The UTDRO Alumni Award, the Alumni Award Committee commented they were "vastly impressed by Dr Fosker's impact on global health, especially regarding his leadership in establishing and continuous support of the first radiation unit in Bermuda".

Chris is a happily married father of three. He coaches and plays football, as well as coaches and competes in triathlons.

NURSING DAVON FOGGO-ADAMS

Davon Foggo is a critical care nurse with over 10 years of experience providing high quality, patient centered care to acutely ill patients Having worked between Bermuda and the United States, Davon is now an intensive care unit nurse at the George Washington University Hospital (GWUH), and an Adjunct Professor at the George Washington University School of Nursing, in Washington D.C. Davon began his career in Bermuda as an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT). He completed his Associate of Science in Nursing at BMCC - City University of New York and is a graduate of Purdue University Global (B.Sc.) and Walden University (M.Sc.) in Minneapolis. Throughout his career, Davon has been respected as a compassionate, committed healthcare provider and organizational leader. As a nurse educator, he works to promote evidence-based practice and cultivates a supportive learning environment for nursing students. Davon is a member of the American Nurses Association and has received numerous awards including the Excellence in Nursing Award from the Washingtonian Magazine. Outside of his professional career, Davon is an active member of his community and routinely volunteers his time promoting health in the community as a volunteer nurse.

PSYCHOLOGY DR. KAULISS P. LANTHIER

Dr. Kauliss P. Lanthier has worked in clinical psychology for more than 20 years. She worked in a variety of settings including hospitals, universities and veteran administration centers, mostly in the United States, Canada and Bermuda. Dr. Lanthier is a graduate of The Bermuda College and Acadia University and achieved her Master of Science Degree from Indiana University. She holds a Clinical Psychology Doctorate from the Illinois School of Professional Psychology at Argosy University in Chicago and has completed a two-year fellowship in psychotherapy from the University of Toronto. She maintains her licensure with the College of Psychologists of Ontario and registration with The Bermuda Psychologists Council (of which she is the chairperson). Dr. Lanthier's areas of interest include trauma, sex assault, PTSD, relationship difficulties, complicated grief, mood disorders, and dysfunctional coping styles. In Bermuda, she has offered EAP services, assessment and psychotherapy for Benedict Associates; has been employed by The Bermuda Hospitals Board and is currently working full-time at MWI and maintains a part-time clinical practice "Patterns" in the City of Hamilton.

TOURISM/HOSPITALITY SHILOH ROQUE

With 25 years of experience working in hospitality, Shiloh is currently in the position of Senior Group Sales Manager at the Hamilton Princess & Beach Club. Prior to her time in Bermuda, Shiloh held the roles of Global Sales Coordinator for Fairmont Raffles Hotels International and Director of Sales of the Amerisuites Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia. Her other roles have included Sales Coordinator for Diplomate Hospitality as well as positions at the Holiday Inn Sun Spree in Wrightsville Beach, North Carolina, and Chattooga Country Club, while at university. Shiloh also spent two years as a small business volunteer with the Peace Corps in Haiti from 2000-2002. Shiloh is a graduate of Western Carolina University with a Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management.